

This form says that you retain the copyright for any media you create on this trip (photo, writing, etc.), but WSU has your consent to publish or use those materials afterward for sharing online, promos for next year, etc.

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
Edward R. Murrow
College of Communication

Student Creative Works Release

I, _____ grant nonexclusive permission to The Edward R. Murrow College of Communication (ERMCC), Washington State University, and its derivatives and students involved in any Murrow Expedition program to use any work created by _____ for the purpose of broadcast, internet, print, digital distribution or multi-media and/or other such uses including student projects for media distribution and activities for educational purposes, for promoting, marketing and advertising the work of ERMCC and its students.. I further agree that ERMCC may duplicate and/or broadcast recordings in whole or in part in any manner and in all media worldwide without limitations or restrictions, now and hereafter known.

I fully understand the nature of this commitment and further attest that I do, under the law of my jurisdiction, Washington State, USA control all permissions on the material I am presenting and on which I am granting permission to ERMCC by signing this agreement.

In consideration for granting this permission, I understand that I am to receive no monetary remuneration but will be given credit for the creation of the video as it is used. I also give ERMCC permission to use the video, as noted above, for its purpose and at its discretion, in perpetuity.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Email/phone: _____

